

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

BONNIE J. HUBBEL,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 01-CV-72038-DT

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S PETITION

On January 2, 2002, the court issued an order and judgment which reversed the determination of the Commissioner of Social Security and remanded the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings.¹ Six and a half years later, pro se Plaintiff Bonnie J. Hubbell has now filed a "Petition Court for Payment," in which she states that the court awarded judgment in her favor and asks for some sort of payment. The court, however, has never ordered or adjudged that Plaintiff is entitled to any monetary award. Rather, the matter was referred to the Commissioner for further proceedings. No further filings were made on this docket, and this case is closed. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff's "Petition Court for Payment" [Dkt. # 15] is DENIED.
